2003 COLLEGE OF THE SISKIYOU TRAINING STAFF

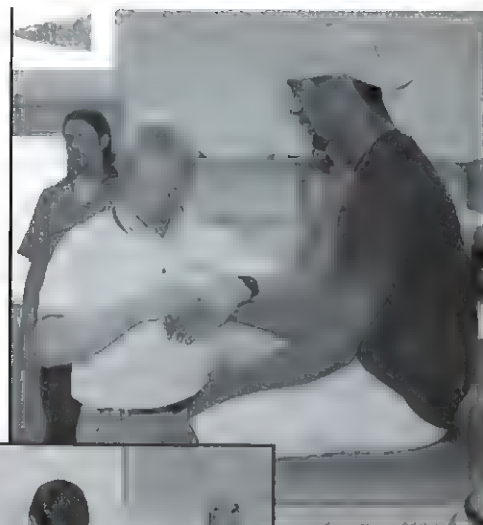

Headed by Mike Paddack and Greg Graves, College of the Siskiyous has two full time athletic trainers on staff. Over the past 25 years an intricate sports medicine network has been established to aid in the evaluation process of injured athletes. This network consists of orthopedic, general medical, chiropractic assistance and physical therapy.

The training room has the latest modalities for heat, cold, and electrical stimulation available to our injured athletes. These modalities in combination with a strong rehabilitation background and a great working relationship with the strength and conditioning coach allow for smooth, fast, and safe transitions from injury, back to full sports participation.

Recent expansion of the training room facilities has allowed for increased capacity to work with multiple athletes, as well as proximity to the strength and conditioning room for direct supervision of exercise rehabilitation. The philosophy of the training room is not only to treat the injury, but to educate the athlete on the nature, prevention and rehabilitation of the injury. This education aids in athlete compliance and therefore assists in the recovery process.

For our students that have an interest in athletic training, we offer Care and Prevention of Athletic Injury (PEMA 36) which is a lab course that enables students to work with our certified trainers. We also offer a basic introductory course, Athletic Injury Management (PEMA 25) that is a three unit transferable course to prepare students for advanced athletic training.

Students are encouraged to become members of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) so that they can acquire the necessary hours and experience that will begin to prepare them for certification in the NATA.

2003 SISKIYOU VOLLEYBALL HEAD COACH

FONTIUS

volleyball head coach

Entering his twelfth season as Eagle Volleyball coach is Dave Fontius. Returning after a two-year absence, Coach Fontius has the most career volleyball wins of any COS volleyball coach.

In his eleven years as Eagle coach he has led them to an overall record of 118-61, at a .661 winning percentage and a Golden Valley Conference record of 74-33, at a .700 winning percentage.

Since taking over the Eagle volleyball program in 1990, COS has never finished lower than fourth place in the GVC. Under his guidance the Eagles won two GVC titles, and returned to the state volleyball tournament five times in eleven seasons. The Eagle's program was a perennial top 25 team in California.

2003 SISKIYOU VOLLEYBALL OUTLOOK

After a two year absence from coaching, Coach Fontius and his assistant, Alaina Blouin, will be working hard to meet the Eagle's tradition of being one of the top volleyball programs in Northern California. The 2003 team will have three returning players from the previous year: all-league standout, Haley Wells; most improved Eagle player, Chelsea Faria; and Latisha Ross. In addition, Coach Fontius has been able to attract thirteen new players to the program. This year's team is determined to be one of the sixteen Northern California volleyball teams to qualify for the state championships.

OUTSIDE HITTERS

Returning outside players, Haley Wells and Chelsea Faria, will be joined by outstanding prospects Chantelle Leon-Guerrero (Honolulu, HI), Annie Tyner (Lower Lake, CA), Vanessa Bouchez (Weed), Tania Liufau (Honolulu, HI), Jessica Jorgensen (Corning, CA), Rachelle Ford, (Weaverville, CA), Jenice Brasser (Klamath Falls, OR), and Rachel Culp (Yreka, CA).

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

Coach Fontius will be looking at all of the outside hitters to find the top two middle blockers for this year's Eagle team. Tania Liufau, Vanessa Bouchez, Chelsea Faria and Chantelle Leon-Guerrero have all shown they can perform well in this position.

SETTERS

Traditionally the Eagles have had outstanding setters and this year will not be an exception. The coaches will have seven players with setting experience on the team. At this point in the season it would appear that the Eagles will be able to run a 6-2 offensive system. This will enable the team to utilize three front row hitters in even rotation. The seven setters include: Laura Johnson, Britanya Angulo, Deidra Jeppson, Serena Trueman, Jessica Jorgensen, Annie Tyner, and Haley Wells.

BACKROW SPECIALISTS (LIBERO)

In the past the Eagles have always had a player that was called the "Ace in the Hole." This player was counted on to come into the match at critical times and make the play that would change the momentum of the match. Two years ago a rule change now allows for a libero player to come into a match in any position and does not count as a substitution. This position allows a team to utilize its best defensive player throughout the match.

DEFENSE

Excellent passing and team quickness is essential for a strong defensive team. The 2003 Eagle volleyball team has the fundamental skills and quickness to be one of the best defensive groups in the state. Coach Fontius believes that the team is made up of outstanding multi-skill athletes. The key elements to the Eagle's success will be teamwork and physical conditioning. For the first time in several seasons the Eagles are very deep at every position. Once the players get used to working together they should be one of the top teams in the Golden Valley Conference.

OFFENSE

With a wealth of talented hitters the Eagles are looking to run a much quicker offense than in previous years. Players like Tania Liufau, Chelsea Faria, Haley Wells, Annie Tyner, Chantelle Leon-Guerrero, Vanessa Bouchez, Jenice Brasser, and Rachel Culp are all capable of hitting a variety of quick sets. This should result in a very exciting style of volleyball for the Eagle fans.

HERSCHEL MEREDITH STADIUM

2003 SISKIYOU

In 1983, College of the Siskiyou stadium was renamed Herschel Meredith Stadium by the college's board of trustees in honor and memory of the late Herschel Meredith, O.D., President of the board of trustees from 1963-1981.

He was a strong supporter of the student-athlete concept and the COS athletic program. His support for the initiation and development of a quality football program at the college gave strong impetus to its numerous successes over the years.
